DETAILED ACTION

EXAMINER'S STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

Applicant's arguments of in the Appeal Brief and terminal disclosure filed October 14, 2011 and September 10, 2011 has been fully considered. In light of further consideration and the terminal disclaimer, claims 4-9 and 16-28 are allowed and renumbered to claims 1-19.

In light of the terminal disclaimer filed September 10, 2011 the nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection over U.S. Patent No. 6,319,192 is withdrawn.

In light of further consideration all previous 35 U.S.C. 103(a) rejections are withdrawn.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The claims 4-9 and 16-28 are drawn to a method of programming an infertility treatment cycle comprising controlled ovaria stimulation and assisted reproductive techniques. There is no prior art disclosing the applicant's specific method. The closest art is Fleberbaum or Olivennes et al. in view of Ziegler et al. (all of record). Felberbaum et al. and Olivennes et al. teach the administration of the LHRH antagonist cetrorelix from day 7 until induction of ovulation with HCG or during hyperstimulation and administration of HMG starting on day 2 of the menstrual cycle. The method of Fleberbaum et al. and Olivennes et al. methods are used to prevent premature LH surges in an IVF-ET program. Ziegler et al. teach that it is difficult to properly time the onset of HMG administration and that treatments were devised to improve scheduling of treatments for patients and team members by synchronizing FSH rises that initiate new menstrual cycles with the onset of HMG administration for controlled ovarian hyperstimulation. Since Fleberbaum et al., Olivennes et al. and Ziegler et al. does not teach administration of a first dose regimen of an LHRH antagonist during the luteal phase of the first menstrual cycle and then a second dose regimen during the follicular phase in the second menstrual cycle the claims are allowed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Kendra D. Carter whose telephone number is (571) 272-9034. The examiner can normally be reached on 8:30 am - 5:00 pm.
